Alan E. Bigelow, a firefighter with the Pahrump Valley Fire Rescue Service, is still in custody at the Nye County Detention Center after being arrested and booked on three counts of sexual assault last week.

Bigelow's bail was originally set at $150,000 but was reduced to $50,000 in a hearing Friday.

The alleged assault was first reported by the unnamed victim Wednesday, July 27.

The investigation, handled by Dep. Dawn Moore, revealed the victim had gone to Bigelow's residence for a massage, a sheriff's office press release said.

The press release states Bigelow assaulted the victim three times against her will.

A search warrant was executed at Bigelow's residence where "numerous items were discovered and taken as evidence," the report stated.

Authorities had to search for Bigelow, who reportedly did not show up for work the next day.

He gave detectives two separate times to meet with him through his attorney. Detectives finally arrested him Sunday, July 31.

Alan Bigelow bail reduced, - Preliminary hearing is set

By JOSH CHASE August 13, 2008 Publication: Pahrump Valley Times (NV) Word Count: 240

Bail for local firefighter Alan Bigelow, who late last month was arrested on charges of sexual assault, was reduced Friday during the defendant's formal arraignment in front of Judge Tina Brisebill.

The judge also set Bigelow's preliminary hearing for Aug. 22 at 10 a.m.

Brisebill dropped bail from $50,000 to $25,000 cash or bond, after hearing from stand-in defense attorney Jason Earnest, who argued Bigelow's strong ties to the community.

"Mr. Bigelow has been a member of this community for six years," he said. "You have a man who, I believe, is no flight risk."

In addition to serving with Pahrump Valley Fire Rescue, Bigelow volunteers at a local TV station and, in 2006, ran for a seat on the Nye County Commission.

Earnest, who in court asked that Bigelow be released on his own recognizance, later said he was pleased with the bail reduction.

"I think that was a very reasonable decision by Judge Brisebill," he said.

Earnest represented Bigelow in place of the defendant's attorney, Tom Pitaro.

About a dozen people, including Justice of the Peace candidate Linda DeMeo, County Commissioner Butch Borasky, and local activist Ray "The Flagman" Mallow, attended the hearing.

Bigelow was arrested July 31 after an unnamed woman contacted the sheriff's office, alleging Bigelow had sexually assaulted her.

According to the sheriff's office, the alleged victim had gone to Bigelow's home for a massage.

Detectives conducted a search of his home, during which "numerous items were discovered and taken as evidence."

The victim then stated that Alan proceeded to give her a massage. The victim stated that when Alan was finished massaging the back of her body he asked her to turn over onto her back. The victim stated that she turned over onto her back and stated that Alan asked her to hang her head over the edge of the bed.

The victim stated that she was very scared because she couldn't breathe because Alan's groin area was covering her mouth and nose. The victim stated that it felt like he was biting her vagina and then she stated that she felt an excruciating burning sensation on her vagina. The victim stated that she didn't know what was causing the burning sensation. The victim stated that Alan then got up off of her and went to the side of the bed and the victim stated that she heard a crinkling sound, that of maybe the wrapper of a condom. The victim stated that she told Alan that she wasn't there for that (sex). The victim then stated that when Alan finished he got up and went into the living room.

I asked the victim why she didn't try to scratch, push Alan off of her or leave the house when he got up to put the condom on. The victim stated that she couldn't believe that this was happening to her and she went into survival mode. The victim stated that she was in fear for her life and didn't know what Alan would do. I asked the victim why she didn't report the sexual assault the same day. The victim stated that she was afraid because of who Alan worked for. (Alan is an employee of Pahrump Valley Fire Department and an independent contractor of Channel 41.)

The victim stated that once she got dressed and was leaving, Alan stated to her that she could pay him next time for a massage. The victim stated that she had left his house and went to her car and while she was in her vehicle, she realized that she had left her eyeglasses in Alan's room. I asked the victim if she went to UMC for the SANE exam as Deputy Moore had advised her to do. The victim stated that she didn't go to UMC for the exam because she felt intimidated to be there. The victim stated that she did go to her physician, Dr. Bady. The victim stated that she gave him permission to release his medical report to the Sheriff's office. The victim stated that Dr. Bady had taken cultures and examined her. The victim stated that Dr. Bady had told her that there was trauma to her vagina. However, Dr. Bady did not take photographs. As of July 31, 2008 I have not received a copy of that report.

During my interview with the victim she became emotional when talking about the sexual assault. The victim would start to tear up and then she would start to cry. The victim appeared to be sincere about what had occurred to her. The victim was interviewed three times and her story didn't change.

On July 30, 2008 a search warrant was then obtained by the Honorable Judge Brisbell for Alan's house and person. At approximately 1054 hours on July 30, 2008, entry was made into Alan's residence. See return of service for the evidence collected at Alan's residence.

On July 31, 2008 numerous attempts were made to contact Alan for his buccal swab. Alan spoke with Detective Chandler and informed him that he had made an appointment with Detective Boruchowitz for 2000 hours on this date. I made contact with Detective Boruchowitz and he stated that he told Alan to come to the Sheriff's office whenever he returned to Pahrump. Detective Boruchowitz had spoken with Alan on July 30, 2008 and Alan informed him that he had called off sick to obtain a lawyer and that he was staying in Las Vegas that evening and would return the following day. Detective Chandler was able to make arraignments for Alan to meet us at the Terrible's Country Store for the search warrant for his buccal swab. Alan was in his Jeep waiting for Detective Chandler and I. Alan was given the search warrant for his buccal swab. I then obtained the buccal swab from Alan. I then placed Alan under arrest for the aforementioned charges.

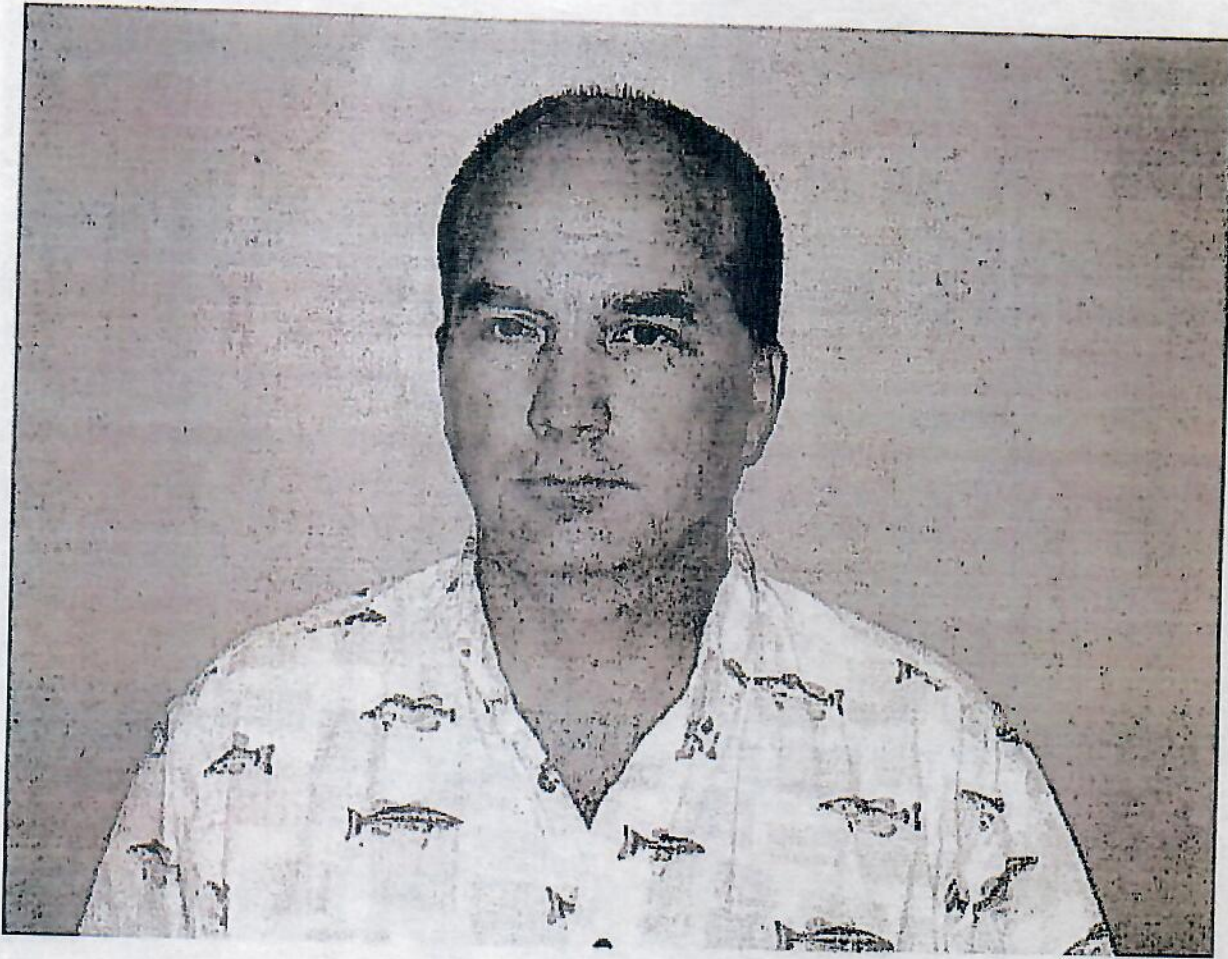

Disposition refer to district attorney for prosecution.

The victim said that they went to an address off of Pochontas, but she is not sure of the exact address.

The victim said that when they got into Mr. Bigelow's residence, he took her to the bedroom and laid out a large, maroon-colored towel on the bed. The victim said that she spoke with several people on Saturday regarding the report/don't report issue and finally decided to call and speak with a detective.

After the interview with the victim, the victim provided me with the clothing that she was wearing that night, and those items were bagged separately and booked into evidence for the detectives to submit for testing. The victim also drew a layout of the suspect's residence, labeling rooms, furniture, etc. That was also copied and booked into evidence. Executive Summary

[REDACTED]

2. The first project of this engagement consisted of a thorough investigation into all matters associated with Alan Bigelow's background and digital footprint. The methodologies employed during the Bigelow investigation consisted of "behind-the-keyboard" investigative techniques, including the acquisition and analysis of background investigation reports, open-source and social media intelligence gathering, and direct contact with several governmental agencies.

The investigation yielded one critical severity finding: Bigelow was arrested and accused of sexual assault by the Nye County Sheriff's Office in 2008. An unnamed female accused Bigelow of sexual assault after she allegedly went to Bigelow's home for a massage. The case was eventually dismissed by Nye County District Attorney in January 2011.

Three high-severity findings were identified regarding Bigelow's financial history. In 2007, he filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy, wiping out over $53,000 in debt as a result. He had nine liens totaling over $2,000 filed against him by the City of Las Vegas and Republic Services from 2013 – 2016 for unpaid trash and sewer bills. And in 2010, Bigelow had his Pahrump, NV home foreclosed on. An additional high-severity finding was identified in the fact that Bigelow's ex-wife currently resides in Pahrump; property records indicate they split around the time of Bigelow's sexual assault case. Additional findings include that Bigelow was possibly a defendant in a Clark County personal injury case in 2015. The case settled for just over $4,000.

Explanation

According to open-source research, Chapter 7 bankruptcy is a type of bankruptcy that can clear away many types of unsecured debts. The Chapter 7 bankruptcy process begins when an individual files for the bankruptcy in federal court. Upon filing, the court places an automatic temporary stay on the filer's current debts, stopping creditors from collecting payments, garnishing wages, foreclosing on a home, repossessing property, evicting, and turning off utilities. The court takes legal possession of any property and appoints a bankruptcy trustee to the case. The trustee's job is to review the filer's finances and assets and oversee the bankruptcy. At the end of the process, approximately four to six months from the initial court filing, the court will discharge the filer's eligible debts, meaning the filer won't have to pay them anymore. A Chapter 7 bankruptcy remains on credit reports and can severely negatively affect the filer's credit scores for ten years from the filing date.

On 05/30/2007, Bigelow filed a voluntary petition for individual bankruptcy, Chapter 7, in United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Nevada. His case was assigned case number 07-13183-lbr. A copy of the voluntary petition filed by Bigelow is attached to this report as Appendix 6 and incorporated herein.

Upon discharge, Bigelow received relief from a $30,942.17 automobile loan and $22,137.63 in credit card debt. A copy of the trustee's final distribution report is attached to this report as Appendix 7 and incorporated herein.
